Our complaints policy

We are committed to providing a high quality legal service to all clients. We acknowledge that we may not always get it right, so if something has gone wrong, including in relation to our charges, we need you to tell us so that we can sort matters out as quickly and effectively as possible.. We consider a complaint to be all expressions of dissatisfaction from a client or other person who is entitled to make a complaint as defined in the Legal Ombudsman's Scheme Rules. Our aim is to address problems that arise through discussion or meetings, this will help us to improve our standards. If you have received this leaflet, it is likely that you have already expressed your concerns verbally or in writing.

We will review this policy at least annually (earlier if the need arises by any relevant regulatory bodies).

1 How do I make a complaint?

1.1 You can contact us in writing (by letter, fax or email) or by telephone.

- 1.2 In the first instance, it may be helpful to contact the person who is working on your case to discuss your concerns and we will do our best to resolve any issues. If you do not feel able to discuss your concerns with them, please contact the person responsible for the overall supervision of your matter, who will be named in the client care letter we sent you at the beginning of your matter.
- 1.3 If you do not feel able to raise your concerns with either of these people, or you are unsatisfied with their response, please contact Mr Dion Williams who has overall responsibility for complaints and whose contact details are: Mr Dion Williams, Director Llewellyn-Jones, Victoria House, Grosvenor Street, Mold CH7 1EJ. email@ dw@llew-jones.co.uk

- 2.6 We will write to you at the end of our investigation to tell you what we have done and what we propose to do to resolve your complaint. Where possible, we will aim to do this within 21 days of the date of our letter of acknowledgement.

This applies if you are an individual, a business with fewer than 10 employees and turnover or assets not exceeding a certain threshold, a charity or trust with a net income of less than £1m, or if you fall within certain other categories, e.g a personal representative or beneficiary- you can find out more from the Legal Ombudsman). We could, if appropriate, offer an informal route to resolving your complaint more quickly and informally (for example, where greater clarity over the breakdown of a bill was needed or a complaint about unreturned calls).

If at any point you become unhappy with the service we provide to you, then please inform us immediately so that we can do our best to resolve the problem for you. You can obtain a copy of our complaints procedure by contacting Janet Pealing on 01352 755305 or by emailing janetpealing@llew-jones.co.uk.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint then you can have your complaint independently looked at by the Legal Ombudsman. The Legal Ombudsman investigates complaints about service issues with solicitors.

The Legal Ombudsman expects complaints to be made to them within one year of the date of the act or omission about which you are concerned or within one year of you realising there was a concern. You must also refer your concerns to the Legal Ombudsman within six months of our final response to you.

If you would like more information about/from the Legal Ombudsman, please contact them.
